Public print is not the place to "get even," to show spite and malice, or to seek revenge. Your enemies may be our friends and customers, just the same as enemies of ours may be friends of yours, but aside from this, it is wrong to publish harmful matter in a newspaper, and if we know it we will not do it. It is very well to criticize public officials, but with private citizens it is different. So please do not ask us to publish matter of this kind.
